Cover Art Designed by Bette Gueltzow

Elizabeth Gueltzow, widely known as Bette, has been dabbling with paint and pens since the age of five where she was found drawing the coronation of Queen Elizabeth on a napkin. She's gone on to take first place at numerous art shows throughout the years. She attended Paier School of Art in New Haven, where she majored in Fashion Illustration and Advertising and graduated with honors (1969). Since then she has been exhibiting her work in New York, Boston, Los Angeles, and her native state of Rhode Island. Her work boasts of an eclectic group of mediums such as pen and ink, acrylics and pastels with a Deco flair. This invitation features a new illustration just for this celebration, a creative take of the Spirit New York to Paris Send Off in the 1920's.
